The Modernist Age

• Bauhaus, Dessau (1925-32)

for the future the bauhaus gave us assurance in facing the perplexities of work;
it gave us the know-how to work,
a foundation in the crafts, an invaluable heritage of timeless principles as applied to the creative process. it expressed again that we are not to impose aesthetics on the things we use, to the structures we live in,
but that purpose and form must be seen as one.

that direction emerges when one considers concrete demands, special conditions, inherent character of a given problem, but never losing perspective that one is, after all, an artist,
the bauhaus existed for a short span of time but the potentials, inherent in its principles have only begun to be realized, its sources of design remain forever full of changing possibilities.

Herbert Bayer (1961)
