What the Greeks knews

• The Mediterranean
  – Boundaries
    • Steppes + Urals
    • Alps + Forests
    • Atlantic Ocean
    • Sahara + Gobi deserts
  – Peninsulas with long shores
    • Greece
    • Iberia
    • Italy
    • Asia Minor
  – Islands
  – Hilly fertile plains of rivers
What the Greeks knews

• The Mediterranean
  – Contrast between centralized river civilizations (Egypt, Mesopotamia, China) and decentralized seafaring civilizations (Minoan, Phoenician, Greek)
  – Relationship between “democracy” and seafaring culture
  – Relationship between free market and seafaring culture

What the Greeks knew

• Minoans (2500-1400BC)
  – Not Indo-Europeans (Egyptians?)
  – Minos = king/pharaoh
  – Road system
  – Urban planning
  – No fortification, no depiction of warriors
  – Belief in the afterlife (dead buried with objects)
  – Human sacrifice
  – Hieroglyphic script and Linear A script (1700 BC)
What the Greeks knew

• Minoans (2500-1400BC)
  – Matriarchal
    • Mother goddess (the only important deity) is the source of both good and evil: everything emanates from her
    • Female priests to administer rites
  – Mass production of goods
    • Factories for pottery, textiles, metalwork
  – Trade
    • Luxury goods from Egypt, metals from Italy, amber from the Baltics
What the Greeks knew

• Minoans (2500-1400BC)
  – Palace society
    • Emphasis not on tombs, temples or fortresses, but on comfort and luxury for the minos
  – Main art: painting (influenced by Egyptian painting)
What the Greeks knew

- Minoans
  - Frescoes (1500 BC)
  - Men in red and women in yellow (like in Egypt)
  - Rhythmic patterns of people (like in Egypt)
  - Flat background (like in Egypt)

What the Greeks knew

• The Dark Age (1174-961 BC)
  – Arrival of Iron
  – Collapse of Hittite empire
  – Collapse of Achaean kingdoms
  – Sea trade:
    • Etruscans (metalwork)
    • Euboeans (precious metals, slaves and wood from Thracia)
    • Phoenicians (luxury goods of eastern empires for raw materials of western barbarians)
      – Not just trade but protected settlement: emporium + sanctuary
What the Greeks knew

• The Dark Age (1174-700 BC)
  – Disappearance of architecture and writing
  – Urban decline
  – Decline of gold and jewelry
  – Iron
  – A society of farmers and herdsmen
  – Warfare based on the heavily-armed mounted aristocrats who engage in duels
  – The wealthy urban civilizations of the bronze age become a legendary memory, originating myths
What the Greeks knew

- Trojan War
  - Early 12th century BC
  - Troy (Anatolia, Turkey)
  - Commercial control of the Dardanelles
  - Paris, son of King Priam of Troy, obtains from Aphrodites the love of Helen of Troy, wife of Menelaus, the king of Sparta
  - Greeks form a coalition led by Agamemnon, Achaean king of Mycenae
  - War decided by Greek heroes (Achilles, Patroclus, the two Ajaxes, Teucer, Nestor, Odysseus, Diomedes)
  - Ten-year siege
  - City of Troy captured with large wooden horse
What the Greeks knew

• The Homeric poems (1000BC-800BC)
  – Homeros/Homer
  – A Greek from Ionia (Asia Minor), perhaps from the island of Chios
  – Lived between 850 BC and 750 BC.
  – Blind wandering minstrel reciting poems from a very old oral tradition
  – Homer used material of 200 or 300 years before an alphabet reached Greece in the 9th or 8th century BC
  – Homer lived in the Iron Age but told his stories about the Bronze Age
  – Homer was Greek but sang about the Mycenaean court
What the Greeks knew

- The Homeric poems (1000BC-800BC)
  - Iliad
    - Poem of 15,693 verses in dactylic hexameter (as in “Canada Canada”)
    - Earliest extant copy of Iliad: 400 BC
    - Tenth year of the war between the Achaeans and Troy
    - Achilles’ wrath (withdraws from battle because of his anger at Agamemnon, returns to avenge the death of his friend Patroklus, kills Trojan hero Hector)
    - Odysseus of Ithaca reluctantly joins the Greeks in the siege of Troy
What the Greeks knew

• The Homeric poems (1000BC-800BC)
  – Iliad
    • Gods, oracles and heroes drive the action
    • Gods witness, root, plot and participate
    • Zeus also foresees the events and makes sure that Fate is respected
    • Two sagas in one: the saga of the gods and the parallel saga of the human heroes
    • Ends with the funerals of the opposing heroes, Hector and Patroklus
What the Greeks knew

• The Homeric poems (1000BC-800BC)
  – Odyssey
    • Odysseus/Ulysses' adventures and ultimate return home ten years after the fall of Troy
    • Cyclopes, nymphae, witches, sirens, monsters
    • Ulysses recovers his kingdom
    • Fantasy not chronicle
What the Greeks knew

• The Homeric poems (1000BC-800BC)
  – Odyssey
    • The poem begins with Odysseus/Ulysses’ refusal of immortality (the opposite of the Gilgamesh, which begins with a quest for immortality)
    • Paradise is a prison: Ulysses does not want immortality with the goddess Calypso; the immortality granted to him by Calypso prevents him from fulfilling his duty
    • Ulysses travels to Hades (the underworld/afterlife) and meets famous deceased (including Achilles)
    • Dead Achilles envies the living
What the Greeks knew

• The Homeric poems (1000BC-800BC)
  – Odyssey
    • Ulysses is not an adventurer but simply a victim who wants to go home
    • Travel brings him misfortune, home means happiness
What the Greeks knew

• The Homeric poems (1000BC-800BC)
  – Penelope
    • She is defined by contrast with Clytemnestra (cheater and traitor), Helen (weak), Calypso, Nausicaa (immature), Circe, Arete
    • Her fidelity is the ideal complement to Ulysses’ courage: the perfect household
    • Ulysses’ sex with other women proves that all alternatives are wrong (even Calypso’s offer of immortality, even Circe’s drugs, even Nausicaa’s virginal youth and royal status)
What the Greeks knew

• Hera
  – She tricks Zeus to help the Greeks against the Trojans when Zeus is helping the Trojans, the only time that someone prevails over Zeus
What the Greeks knew

- The Homeric poems (1000BC-800BC)
  - Heroic virtues
  - Fate (the best do not always win)
  - Life as a continuous titanic struggle
  - Gods are capable of evil
  - Separation of art and religion (the poet as a vehicle for the gods but not as a priest)
  - Dactylic hexameter (as in “Canada Canada”)
  - Unity of design
What the Greeks knew

• The Homeric poems (1000BC-800BC)
  – No unity of soul: psyche (vital spirit?), thymos (consciousness?), nous (intellect?)
  • At death, psyche wanders in Hades, thymos leaves the body
  – Funeral rites for heroes: cremation of the corpse, sacrifice of prisoners and animals, offerings of honey and oil, banquet, athletic tournament, tomb
What the Greeks knew

• The Homeric poems (1000BC-800BC)
  – Retelling of familiar stories, no suspense no surprises
  – Meant to be recited, not read (not a solitary reader but a collective experience)
  – The Greeks regarded Homer as the first historian (history = epic poetry)
What the Greeks knew

• Other epics
  – Achilles' victories over Penthesilea, queen of the Amazons, and Memnon, king of Ethiopia,
  – Death of Achilles at the hands of Paris
  – Aeneas escaped the massacre and led the Trojan survivors to Italy
What the Greeks knew

- Greek afterlife
  - Indifferent to afterlife
  - Hades: not punishment or reward, simply a place (underworld) where the dead go
  - Very detailed geography and bureaucracy of Hades, but no description of the heavens
  - Immortality via
    - Heroism
    - Family
What the Greeks knew

• Atlantis
  – Described by Plato (Timaeus and Critias)
    • Larger than Asia Minor and Libya combined
    • Flourishing civilization
    • Conquered all the Mediterranean peoples except Athens
    • 12,000 ships
    • Chariots
    • Bronze weapons
    • Concentric waterways
    • Destroyed
What the Greeks knew

• Thera
  – Minoan civilization
  – 1628 BC: volcanic eruption

• Troj
  – 12,000 ships
  – Chariots
  – Bronze weapons
  – Concentric waterways
  – Destroyed
What the Greeks knew

• The Greeks (700 BC)
  – Rapid (seven fold?) population increase in the 8th c BC
  – Trade replaces food production as leading activity
  – Tribal society replaced by polis
  – Warfare based on the phalanx (discipline infantrymen) that engages in battles
  – Adoption of Phoenician alphabet (but left to right writing)
  – Writing used by individuals, not only by the bureaucracy
  – Stone temple (700 BC)
  – Beautiful, well-proportionate structures
  – Static World
What the Greeks knew

- The Greeks (700 BC)
  - The 24 letters of the alphabet (plus three more) used for number symbols
  - Earliest example of Greek alphabet: 740 BC (a line of poetry about dancing: writing used for artistic purposes, not just for accounting)
  - Greek was originally written right-to-left, then boustrophedon, and finally (5th c) left-to-right
What the Greeks knew

• The Greeks (700 BC)
  – Decimal system: nine letters for the units, nine for the tens, and nine for the hundreds
  – The thousands (1000 to 9000) represented by placing an apostrophe ‘ before a unit
  – M used to represent numbers from 10,000 on up (myriad = 10,000)
What the Greeks knew

- The Greeks (700 BC)
  - The Greek alphabet is fully abstract and prompts the writer and the reader to think abstract
What the Greeks knew

- The Greeks (700 BC)

What the Greeks knew

- Sparta
  - Warrior society (Sparta did not lose a single war between 800 and 371BC)
  - Egalitarian society (even gender equality)
  - Secret police
  - Every citizen is from birth until death
  - Austere living
  - The state comes before the family
  - Education = harsh discipline, martial arts, murder of serfs (collective education run by the state)
  - Women train and live just like men (and own 2/5th of the land according to Aristotle)
  - Economic activities banned
  - Military agrarian state (never underwent the urban revolution)
What the Greeks knew

• Sparta
  – Sparta’s strength: army
  – Sparta’s weakness: no assimilation of conquered people
What the Greeks knew

• Athens
  – Solon’s reforms 594 BC
    • A tyrant chosen by the people
    • Membership in the assembly (ekklesia) extended to merchants, not only landowners
    • The assembly’s power increases dramatically
What the Greeks knew

- Athens
  - Democracy: Cleisthenes’ constitution 507 BC
  - Pericles (461 BC-429 BC): the assembly includes every free adult male
  - Checks in place to prevent individuals from acquiring too much power (even heroes were sent into exile)
  - Economic empire
  - Administration of justice based on politics and rhetoric (art of persuasion)
  - Demagogues (wealthy aristocrats) run the city life
  - Athens’ military strength: the fleet
  - Education: private schools paid by the families of the children (reading, writing, arithmetic, poetry, music, gymnastics)
What the Greeks knew

- Colonization (750BC)
What the Greeks knew

• Hesiod (750BC)
• Collapse of mythopoetic thought
• Lyric poem
  – Archilochus (650 BC)
  – Sappho (600 BC)
  – Pindar (b 518BC)
• Poetry for the synposion (drinking party of the elite)
• Emergence of the poet as an individual, not a collective bard: the soul of the individual not the soul of the community
• Music and Dance

What the Greeks knew

The Greek world (7th c. BC)
What the Greeks knew

• The Greek Age (Circa 500 BC)
  – Masters of sea trade:
    • Western Mediterranean: Carthage
    • Central Mediterranean: Syracuse
    • Eastern Mediterranean: Athens
    • Same trade routes of the Phoenicians, Etruscans, Euboeans
What the Greeks knew

• Synthesis of civilizations
  – Sculpture: Egyptian
  – Alphabet: Phoenician
  – Architecture: Asia Minor
  – Religion: Indo-European
  – Mythology: Minoan
  – Science: Mesopotamia
  – Geometry: Egyptian
What the Greeks knew

- Greek religion
  - Gods as vehicles of the force
  - Gods did not create the world, they only conquered it thanks to their powers
  - Powerful but not omnipotent gods
  - Problem of evil: gods are indifferent to humans and gods are not omnipotent, therefore evil just happens
  - Religion is worship and sacrifice
What the Greeks knew

• Greek religion
  – Oracles (persons through which the gods respond with advice/prophecy when consulted, often via enigmatic allegories)
    • Dreams are about the future, not the past
  – Sybils (female prophets) and Bakides (male prophets) interpreted by “exegetai”
  – Sanctuaries: Delphi (Apollo), Olympia (Zeus), etc
  – Apollo (god of all knowledge) is the highest religious and moral authority
Delphi

Delphi

(Ecole des Beaux Arts)
What the Greeks knew

- Religion as rational superstition
  - The gods are exempt from aging and death
  - The gods are powerful
  - The gods control natural phenomena and human destiny
  - Gods are capricious and there is nothing humans can do about it (Problem of evil)
  - The head of all gods (Zeus) was not one of the earliest and did not create the universe
  - Gods have no effect on the working of the universe.
  - Gods have feelings
What the Greeks knew

• Religion as rational superstition
  – The Titans, who ruled the Earth before the Olympians overthrew them and banished them to Tartarus
    • Kronos (dethroned by his son Zeus)
    • Gaea, Uranus, Rhea, Oceanus, Tethys, Hyperion, Mnemosyne, Iapetus, Coeus, Crius, Phoebe, Thea, Epimetheus, Atlas, Metis, Dione (all sided with Cronus)
    • Themis and Prometheus (only ones to side with Zeus)
    • Some are male, some are female
What the Greeks knew

• Religion as rational superstition
  – The Olympians: 12 chief gods 12 gods who ruled after the overthrow of the Titans:
    • Zeus, his wife Hera,
    • Hephaestus (fire),
    • Athena (wisdom),
    • Apollo (poetry/music),
    • Artemis (wildlife),
    • Ares (war),
    • Aphrodite (love),
    • Hestia (hearth),
    • Hermes (messenger),
    • Demeter (agriculture),
    • Poseidon (see)
What the Greeks knew

• Religion as rational superstition
  – Lesser gods:
    • Asclepius
    • Persephone
    • Dionysus
    • Eros
    • Thanatos
    • Pan
    • Nemesis
    • Helius, Hebe, Eris

What the Greeks knew

• Religion as rational superstition
  – Underworld
    • Hades ruler of the underworld
    • Hades’ wife Persephone
    • Dark place located at the center of the Earth
    • Populated by the souls of dead people
  – Elysium (Elysian Fields): a perfect land located at the westernmost edge of the world where dead heroes lived forever
What the Greeks knew

• Religion as rational superstition
  – Gods have no effect on the working of the universe.
  – Thus Science and Religion never contradict each other

• No organized church
  – Priests (oracles) are mere interpreters between gods and humans
  – No theocracy: powerless “priests”
  – Priestly duties were duties of every good citizen, just like many other duties
What the Greeks knew

• Heroism
  – Humans are halfway between beasts and gods
  – In virtue of their achievements, heroes are more godly than beastly (heroism is an everlasting quality just like the powers of the gods)
  – Heroes struggle against human destiny
  – Heroism is a titanic struggle to become more divine than human – Value system based on competition ("agon")
What the Greeks knew

- Olympic games (776BC): festival of Zeus
  - affirmation of the pan-hellenic identity
  - athletes, dramatists, poets
  - agon (competition)
- 582 BC: the Pythian games are established in Delphi and the Isthmian games are established in Corinth
- Games pervasive for all sorts of activities and cults
- Foreigners, slaves, convicts are not allowed (it’s a religious “game”)
- Victory depends on destiny (divine favor) not on skills
- Prize: a simple garland of olive

What the Greeks knew

• Calendar
  – 432 BC: Hellenic luni-solar calendar
  – 264 BC: "Attikos Hemerologia"
    • First year: Olympic Games of 776 BC
    • Luni-solar calendar of 12 months of 29 and 30 days
    • First day of the year: Summer Solstice
    • First day of the month: Noumenia
    • 3 "decads" (ten days) per month
What the Greeks knew

• Festivals
  • Hekatombaion (roughly beginning of summer)
    – 7th: Hekatombaia (Apollo, offerings of "hekatombs" or large sacrifices)
    – Olympic Games (every four years)
    – 12th: Kronia (Kronos, end of harvest)
    – 28th: Panathenaia (Athena's birthday, procession depicted on the frieze of the Parthenon)
  • Metageitnion
  • Boedromion
    – 5th: Genesia (festival to honor the dead)
    – 15th: Eleusinian Mysteries (Demeter, nine-day festival every five years)
    – 17th: Epidauria (Aesklepios)
What the Greeks knew

- Pyanopsion
  - 6th: Proerosia (Demeter, agrarian festival before the plowing)
  - 7th: Pyanopsia (Apollon)
  - 8th: Theseia (Theseus)

What the Greeks knew

• Cults of immortality outside mainstream religion
  – Eleusinian mysteries
  – Dionysian mysteries
  – Orphic mysteries
What the Greeks knew

• Eleusinian mysteries
  – Eleusis’ sanctuary built in 15th c BC
  – Initiatory religion
  – Most important religious festivals
  – Lasted for 2,000 years
  – Four stages in the revelation of the mysteries
  – Demeter's search through the underworld for her daughter Persephone, abducted by Hades
  – Demeter as the bringer of immortality to humankind

Persephone rescued from the underworld
What the Greeks knew

• Eleusinian mysteries
  – Hymn to Demeter (7th c BC)
    • Demeter and her daughter Persephone were separated when Hades kidnapped Persephone in his chariot as she was gathering flowers, and took her with him into the underworld
    • The disconsolate Demeter searches all over the world for her in vain.
    • Hekate and Helios tell her what happened, and that it was approved in advance by Zeus himself
    • In protest, Demeter abandons her divine form and, disguised as an old woman from Crete, reaches Eleusis and finds employment as a nurse for a child
    • Demeter is about to turn the child into an immortal being through some secret rites when the child’s mother interrupts her
    • Moved by Demeter’s stubborness, Zeus forces Hades to free Persephone
What the Greeks knew

• Nine days of the Eleusinian mysteries
  – Candidates for initiation to the mysteries of life gather in Eleusis
  – Candidates are purified in the sea
  – Candidates fast
  – Sacrifices and mystical dances
  – Candidates entered inside Demeter's temple in Athens
  – Procession from Athens to Eleusis with the statue of the boy-god Iakhos
  – Secret initiation inside the Adyton (3 days)
What the Greeks knew

- Cult of Dionysus/Bacchus (mysticism)
  - God of frenzy (pleasure, wine)
  - Remnant of an earlier religion
  - Dionysus, god of wine and pleasure
  - Accompanied by satyrs, centaurs, nymphs
  - Dionysus died each winter and was reborn in the spring
  - Dionysia involved dramatic performances
  - Female devotees (mainades/maenads) worship him in frenzied savagery, tearing children and animals limb from limb
  - During the orgy the human soul becomes one with the god
  - Tomb of Dionysus in Delphi
What the Greeks knew

• Cult of Dionysus/Bacchus (mysticism)
  – 5th c: Thebes is the main center of the cult of Dionysus
  – 2nd c BC: the cult spreads in the Roman empire (forbidden by the senate)
  – Dithyramb: song of Dionysus
What the Greeks knew

- Dionysian Festival

What the Greeks knew

- Orphic mysteries (mysticism)
  - Founder of the mysteries: poet and musician Orpheus (first mentioned in the 6th c BC), who almost succeeded in bringing back his dead wife Eurydice from the underworld ("katabasis")
    - devoted to Apollo
    - killed by Dionysus
  - Zeus resurrected his (Zeus’) son Dionysus (born of a god and a mortal woman) and created the human race from the ashes of his assassins, the Titans
    - Dionysus himself rescued his mother from Hades
    - Dionysus has both a divine and a human nature
    - His death and resurrection saves humans
What the Greeks knew

• Orphic mysteries
  – Mystery: humans have a dual nature: the earthly body (which comes from the Titans and feels pain) and the divine soul (which comes from Dionysus and leads to ecstasy)
  – The heavenly component increases with rites of purification (“katharsis”) and ascetism (which get rid of the evil Titanic elements)
  – After death, people who lived in evil will be punished, while the souls of people who lived in holiness will be completely liberated from Titanic elements and reunited with Dionysus
What the Greeks knew

• Orphic mysteries
  – Earthly life determines if the soul will be happy or unhappy for eternity
  – The damned shall suffer for eternity (proto-concept of hell)
  – Ultimate goal of Orphism: permanent (not only temporary) union of the soul with the divinity
  – Immortality of the soul
  – Orphism vs Bacchism: purification instead of orgy, permanent instead of temporary union of soul and god, immortality instead of mortality
  – Orphism very similar to Pythagorean practices
  – Prestige of Orphism declined after Persian wars
What the Greeks knew

• Orphic mysteries
  – As the soul arrives thirsty in Hades, it is tempted to drink from the spring of Lethe
  – But one drink from the spring of Lethe erases all the memories
What the Greeks knew

• Artemis
  – Illegitimate daughter of Zeus and Leto, twin sister of Apollo
  – Virgin goddess
  – Principal deity of Asia Minor (e.g., Ephesos)
  – Festivals: Brauronia, held in Brauron, and Orthia at Sparta
What the Greeks knew

• Prometheus
  – Prometheus created humankind, made humans superior to animals, gave them the gift of fire (stolen from the gods) and gave them the flesh of sacrifices (leaving the bones for the gods).
  – Zeus, angry, punished Prometheus by chaining him to a rock.
  – Prometheus was freed by Hercules
  – This first sacrifice became the norm for humans (Greeks offered animal bones to the gods, keeping the flesh for themselves)
What the Greeks knew

• Daedalus
  – Daedalus builds the Labyrinth to imprison the Minotaur of Crete
  – Daedalus reveals the secret of the Labyrinth to Ariadne
  – Ariadne tells her lover Theseus who kills the Minotaur
  – Ariadne and Theseus flee
  – The king of Crete puts Daedalus himself as well as his son Icarus in the Labyrinth so he cannot escape
  – Daedalus makes wings of wax that allow the two prisoners to fly out of the Labyrinth
  – Icarus flies too near the Sun and his wings melt, killing him
  – Daedalus flies to Sicily
What the Greeks knew

• Theseus

What the Greeks knew

• Greek myths are not consistent
  – E.g., Ariadne:
    • abandoned by Theseus, she commits suicide
    • abandoned by Theseus, she dies in childbirth
    • killed by Artemis
    • turned to stone by Perseus
    • marries Dionysus and becomes a constellation
What the Greeks knew

- Heroes: Heracles, Theseus, Jason, Perseus, Oedipus
- Cosmogony:
  - Cronus originates the gods (father of Zeus)
  - Oceanus originates the rivers and the seas
  - Gods, geography and living beings are co-protagonists of the cosmic story
What the Greeks knew

• Greek superstition ("religion"?)
  – The gods (Zeus, Apollo, etc)
  – The mysteries
  – The heroes

• Because it is so chaotic and contradictory, Greek religion is quite tolerant of other philosophical, scientific) ideas
What the Greeks knew

• Aphrodite
  – Semitic goddesses of war and love: Inanna, Ishtar/Astarte
  – Homer and Hesiod discard the “war” component
  – Hesiod:
    • Aphrodite born in Cyprus out of the testicles of Uranus (castrated by his son Cronus, urged in turn by his mother Gaea)(Uranus’ castration story comes from the Enuma Elish)
    • Older than the other Olympians because
    • She has the power to deceive Zeus in person
    • Eros (desire) and Himeros (yearning) are her assistants
What the Greeks knew

• Aphrodite
  – Homer and Hesiod discard the “war” component
  – Homer:
    • Aphrodite is Zeus’ daughter (from Dione)
    • She causes the war by helping Paris (son of Priam, king of Troy) to seduce Helen (queen of Mycenaean Spart) and abduct her to Troy
    • She makes sure that the war is not ended by the duel between Paris and Menelaus by spiriting Paris away
    • Aphrodite commits adultery with the war-god Ares (and her husband Hephaestus is ridiculed by the gods)
    • Aphrodite fails to rescue her son Aeneas (she is no longer a war goddess)
What the Greeks knew

• Aphrodite
  – Homeric Hymn to Aphrodite (7th c BC)
    • Aphrodite drives gods to mate with mortals
    • Aphrodite herself has sex with a young mortal, Anchises, and their son Aeneas guides the survivors of the Trojan War to Italy
    • Inanna and her mortal lover Dumuzi, Ishtar and her mortal lover Tammuz
    • Wolves, lions, bears and leopards follow her (like Cybele in Phrygia, the goddess of the wild beasts)
  – Popular myth
    • Aphrodite has sex with a young mortal, Adonis
What the Greeks knew

• Pandora
  – The first woman: before Pandora human beings are exclusively male
  – Pandora is sent by Zeus as punishment in retaliation for Prometheus’ theft of fire (“the mind of a bitch and a thieving nature”)
  – Pandora opens the mysterious jar that Zeus has given her, and its content (suffering) scatters all over the human world and still plagues men
What the Greeks knew

- Eros
  - Eros is a threat to society
    - Aphrodite: destructive power of sex (she causes the carnage of the Trojan war)
    - Pandora: symbol of female evil
    - Circe: symbol of how woman can enslave even the greatest of men
    - Medea: symbol of female power (protofeminist speech about the condition of women)
    - Diotima: desexualizes sex (origin of “Platonic love”)

- • Eros
What the Greeks knew

- Eros
  - Hesiod’s Eros is a male god with no parents (like Gaea/ Earth and Tartarus/Underworld, all originated by the primordial Chaos)
  - Eros induces Gaea to generate her own husband Uranus/Sky, and that begins biological sex, with a female and a male joining to give birth to other gods
  - After Aphrodite is born out of Uranus’ tentacles, Eros becomes a mere assistant to Aphrodite
  - Homer’s eros is not a god but simply a common noun meaning sexual desire)
What the Greeks knew

• Homosexuality
  – Not mentioned by either Homer (Achilles and Patroclus are comrades, not lovers) or Hesiod
  – Prevalent in lyric poems of the 7th-6th c BC
  – Aeschylus and Plato treat Achilles as gay
  – Common in the age of Sparta and Athens but only as pederasty
  – Pythagoras condemns it
  – Aristotle has an unsympathetic view of it ("Ethics")
  – Plato condemns it in the "Laws"
  – Aristophanes condemns it
What the Greeks knew

• Prostitution
  – Pornai (ordinary prostitutes)
  – Hetairai/hetaerae (the Greek equivalent of geishas, cultured and sometimes rich companion)
    • Aspasia (5th c. BC) is the mistress of Pericles and hangs out with Phidias and Socrates - most famous woman of ancient Greece
    • Lais of Corinth (5th c BC) served distinguished men and charged exorbitant fees
  – Only hetaerae are known by name (respectable women are known as the daughter/wife/mother of a man)
What the Greeks knew

• Prostitution
  – Corinth’s sacred prostitutes (women offered as sacrifice by families and individuals to the goddess Aphrodite)
  – Pederasty widely debated but prostitution rarely mentioned in classical Athens (like heterosexuality in general)
  – Hetairai appear in two Aristophanes plays ("Assemblywomen", 392 BC; “Wealth”)
  – 390 BC - 320 BC: Several plays bear the name of a hetaera
  – Epicrates of Ambracia’s “Antilais” (4th c BC) attacks and mocks Lais
What the Greeks knew

• Sex in pottery
  – Relatively few: 150 out of more than tens of thousands of extant vases (less than 1% of all pottery)
  – 575-450 BC: Erotic and explicitly sexual scenes are common, but figures are stylized (not realistic), and portrayals of sex are often grotesque and/or obscene
  – 550 BC: Height of popularity of homoerotic scenes (mostly between adults, but the age of the erastes keeps declining)
  – 525 BC: The red-figure method replaces the black-figure method, portrayals of sex become more refined
What the Greeks knew

• Sex in pottery
  – Customers of the erotic vases: Etruria (where most of them were found) and the synposion (private drinking party of the aristocratic elite, the same place where erotic poetry is sung)
  – All women depicted on vases are either slaves or prostitutes: the customer does not buy these vases for his wife but for his synposion
  – Vases are made mostly by slaves (just like many of the women they depict) and they are made at the Ceramicus (which is also Athens’ prostitution district)
What the Greeks knew

- Sex in pottery
  - Athenian democracy (490-338 BC)
  - 500 BC: In homoerotic scenes the erastes is often a teenager
  - 470 BC: Peak of love scenes with hetaeras
  - 450 BC and later: the Etrurian market has collapsed, erotic scenes are rare, respectable housewives in domestic settings become more common and figures are realistic
  - The peak of Athenian democracy is an age of sexual restraint and of family values
